The Seattle Human Services Department funds and administers a citywide cohort of nonprofit agencies engaged in strengthening and empowering families. The goal of this work is to ensure that youth in Seattle successfully transition to adulthood.

Member Service Areas
- Parenting Support
- Access to Resources
- Child Development Activities

At a Glance
- Types of Members: Community-Based
- Pass-Through Annually: $3.1 Million
- Funding Source: City Government
- Network Structure: Public Funder-Coordinated

Network Functions
- Connecting Members
- Training/Technical Assistance
- Pass-Through Funding to Members
- Shared Data Management System
Washington

Highlights

• Funded agencies serve families with Systems Navigation and Family Support programming in 20 different languages.

• Funded agencies provide specialized support for refugee and immigrant families, including assistance navigating social services, hosting Know Your Rights workshops, partnering with other agencies serving refugee and immigrant families, and helping these families connect with the larger community.

Outcomes

• 2017 Participant data has indicated that:
  ° 95% improved individual and family overall physical and behavioral health
  ° 97% improved individual and family access to needed information and services
  ° 99% improved individual and family connection to community
  ° 95% improved individual and family skills related to education, life skills, employment or technology